

Maths Homework has been set for you on the MyMaths website. If you have no internet access at home, make sure you arrange with your teacher to do the activities as a morning activity before the deadline date.

History/ English This week we have been exploring different periods of time, and discussing the question “Has there ever been a better time to live here?” Continue to explore this question by asking friends and family their opinions on this question, Has there ever been a better time to live here in living memory?

RE

Y6 We will be exploring different books in our new RE topic next week. Please prepare for this by reflecting on which book is your favourite book. Write a short explanation in your Homework Journal giving the title and author of your favourite book, and explaining the reasons for this. Please also bring in the book and be prepared to share it with the class.

Y5 Research one of the following inspirational leaders: Nelson Mandela; Theresa May; Pope Francis; Dalai Lama or Angelina Jolie.

Ensure you have answered all of these questions:

1. What was the inspiration for their mission?
2. What has he/she done to change people’s lives?
3. What were the demands and joys of their mission?
4. How has their mission affected you?

This homework is due in by Wednesday 10th January. Please see your teacher if you have any queries.
